

Office of Military Cooperation - Afghanistan

Chief, OMC-A Certificate Of Appreciation

Presented to
FRANZ K. ZENZ
PRESIDENT, TRYCO

IN SUPPORT OF OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM

For exceptionally meritorious achievement while serving as the contracted Aviation Support Element for the Office of Military Cooperation - Afghanistan, in support of Operation ENDURING FREEDOM during the period of 15 August 2003 to 29 June 2004. Mr. Zenz's aviation support efforts were instrumental in providing "On time - On target" air transportation to the OMC-A Recruiting Assistance Team throughout Afghanistan. Mr. Zenz's daily professionalism during the conduct of air operations in Afghanistan was directly responsible for the successful contracting and construction of 35 National Army Volunteer Centers (NAVC's) throughout the country. TRYCO air crews accumulated an impressive record of "Zero" accidents, incidents or safety violations during this period while meeting all scheduled air missions, scheduled maintenance and non-scheduled air support requests. Mr. Zenz actively demonstrated positive engagement with officials and local populace in support of the Afghan National Army (ANA) recruiting mission while serving as an outstanding ambassador representing the Coalition Force recruiting effort. Mr. Zenz's performance of duty in a combat zone reflect great credit upon himself, TRYCO, the Office of Military Cooperation-Afghanistan, Combined Forces Command - Central Asia and the United States Central Command.

Given this 29th Day of June 2004
